

Amendments to the Claims

Claim 1 (Currently amended): A method of immunization identification, comprising:
filling a first syringe with a first immunization dosage; applying a first adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from a first immunization identification strip having a first color to the first syringe; injecting the first dosage into a patient at a first injection site; applying a second adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from the first immunization identification strip having ~~a the~~ first color to the first injection site after the injection; and applying a third adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from the first immunization identification strip having the first color to a medical office chart of the patient.

Claim 2 (Currently amended): The method of claim 1 further comprising:
filling a second syringe with a second immunization dosage; applying a fourth adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from a second immunization identification strip having a second color to the second syringe; injecting the second dosage into the patient at a second injection site; applying a fifth adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from the second immunization identification strip having the second color to the second injection site after the injection; and applying a sixth adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from the second immunization identification strip having the second color to the medical office chart of the patient.

Claim 3 (Currently amended): The method of claim 1 further comprising applying a fourth adhesive-backed ~~strip~~ sticker from the first immunization identification strip having the first color to a home chart of the patient.

Claim 4 (Original): The method of claim 1 further comprising providing the first color on a first vial containing the first immunization dosage.

Claim 5 (Original): The method of claim 4 further comprising providing the second color on a second vial containing the second immunization dosage.

Claim 6 (Currently amended): A method of identifying immunizations given to a patient, comprising:

applying a first series of stickers from a first immunization identification strip corresponding to a first immunization to a first syringe, a first injection site, and a medical record chart of a patient, the first series of stickers all having a common first indicia.

Claim 7 (Currently amended): The method of claim 6 further comprising applying a second series of stickers from a second immunization identification strip corresponding to a second immunization to a second syringe, a second injection site, and the medical record of the patient, the second series of stickers having a common second indicia.

Claim 8 (Original): The method of claim 7 wherein the first and second indicia are first and second colors.

Claim 9 (Original): The method of claim 7 wherein the first and second series of stickers are further applied to a home chart of the patient.

Claim 10 (Original): The method of claim 7 further comprising providing the first and second indicia on first and second vials containing the first and second immunizations, respectively.

Claim 11 (Withdrawn): An immunization identification system, comprising: a first series of stickers all having a first color corresponding to a first immunization; and a second series of stickers all having a second color corresponding to a second immunization; the first and second series of stickers being adapted to be applied to first and second syringes, to first and second patient injection sites, and to a medical chart of the patient.

Claim 12 (Withdrawn): The immunization identification system of claim 11 wherein each of the first and second series of stickers includes at least three stickers for the respective syringe, injection site and medical chart.

Claim 13 (Withdrawn): The immunization identification system of claim 12 wherein each of the first and second series of stickers includes a fourth sticker for a home chart of the patient.

Claim 14 (Withdrawn): The immunization identification system of claim 11 wherein each of the first and second series of stickers includes a bar code for billing a payor.

Claim 15 (Withdrawn): The immunization identification system of claim 11 wherein each sticker includes a written identification of the immunization type.